Introduction

Brendan Kavaney
Head of Field Marketing

It's nearly summer (for most of us anyway), but there's a lot going on at Mindtree. We got an award for our compliance framework; a nice testament to our company values. In our podcast, we broke down how innovation really happens. Our CEO talks about the process of decision making. The head of our enterprise re-imagination business discusses AI, and our CIO has some advice about innovation. Enjoy.
